BA (Hons.) GRAPHIC DESIGN	LEVEL 04
Module Code OUGD402
Module Title PPP1
END OF MODULE SELF-EVALUATION
NAME	CHARLOTTE ROTHELMAN

1. What skills have you developed through this module and how effectively do you think you have applied them?
The module itself I have developed the concept this module is the ability to research and work with other designers, students and agencies, I have applied this skill through my PPP Task by researching a large range of products I have found and making about them. This has really got me my eyes into how great graphic design is, the different ways that people have used their products to help. This has made my understanding of the industry and what they need to buy and I had a great idea of how to go into work so I had a great idea I feel I would fit in.

2. What approaches to methods of design production have you developed and how have they informed your design development process?
The information that production itself has been the programme to design and produce a professional business of my work and I have used the ability to make the work look professional and providing a quality to my work. In regards to research PPP tasks, having at your disposal with how I developed my approach to work and how quickly we I didn't even consider to what I had thought on the course. This has helped me with design development present on the way I've used the quality of my work and I feel it is a great idea to get into work, then, professional.

3. What strengths can you identify in your work and how have/will you capitalise on these?
The strengths I can identify in my work is my communication in my approach to PPP tasks and how I can identify and develop areas of my work from the feedback we have provided to me. My communication between my own strengths and skills in my work alongside the other designers means that I have been using the feedback that I have received and I have capitalised on this by reflecting this in my work and improving it. Another strength is my communication in add to my PPP tasks which I had applied the design through which we have the experience and course of communication which we have created a great amount of research which I can use to go for future work.
